NEW MAJESTIC
ROQUEBRUNE-CAP-MARTIN

A new ART OF LIVING
“To know that the Mediterranean is close by and to feel an incredible sense of well-being every day is the promise of New Majestic.”

To share our vision of luxury with you: a feast for the senses, open to the diversity of your desires.

For more than 50 years, Kaufman & Broad has worked tirelessly to ensure that its passion for beauty and uniqueness is reflected in exceptional projects in areas designed for its clients. The art of living is cultivated in a quiet and subtle manner.

Today, in the heart of the Côte d’Azur, in the best traditions of the mythical Riviera, Kaufman & Broad presents an infinitely refined address for a particular experience of happiness. New Majestic proudly opens its doors to you. Its innovative architecture, its privileged location and its numerous services will help to give you greater peace of mind.

Enter, settle in and discover the new must-see address in Roquebrune-Cap-Martin. Yours.
Creative and ambitious, the design of New Majestic leaves out the superfluous to enhance its clean, minimalist charm. The dynamism of the volumes in the facade provides harmony and a perfect balance. The predominance of white and the generous glazed surfaces show a clear commitment to architectural excellence.

Modernity!
CAREFULLY DESIGNED LINES

- Contemporary development
- Geometric and modernist style
- Outdoor areas emphasised
- Use of light as a material in its own right
The rooftop pool and solarium promise delightful experiences and a stunning view of the bay. The substantially-sized turquoise pool, surrounded by stoneware tiles, will become your oasis. Here you can enjoy wonderful relaxing bathing, lulled by the murmur of the Mediterranean.
Because excellence will punctuate every moment of your daily life, one of the hallmarks of New Majestic is the provision of services worthy of a palace. Need to relax or boost your energy? A fitness room is exclusively reserved for you to keep in shape. Do you want to refocus on the essentials and make your daily life easier? A concierge service* makes it easy for you to get organised. The key benefit: your peace of mind!

* Service in the process of definition.
The silhouette of New Majestic is gracefully oriented towards the sea. The symmetrical distribution of its buildings, the sobriety of the ornaments in the decoration of the facades and its cubic forms reinterpret the great classics of the real estate heritage of the Riviera. You will be captivated by its imposing yet refined style. Its roof terraces and large overhangs will provide you with much appreciated relaxation areas.

A eulogy to purity and elegance

- From 2 to 5 rooms, some with rooftop terraces
- High quality services
- Well-kept landscaped environment
All the apartments in New Majestic are surprising, due to the quality of their spaces and carefully considered interior design. They benefit from good exposure to natural light. The refinement of the top-of-the-range services, configurations and finishes are all details that we provide to make you feel perfectly at home.
A perfect layout is the result of the dialogue between the interior and the exterior. New Majestic offers spacious living spaces that allow you to enjoy every moment of your day. The architecture allows light to flood in thanks to the large windows and beautiful open spaces. Each floor plan, covering and item of equipment is the expression of our search for excellence and helps you in planning your future decoration.

brOady simplifies your life!

This simple and easy-to-use home automation application connects you to your home and allows you to control the various items of equipment, either remotely or from home. Once delivered, your new home will automatically have the “remote control of roller shutters” function. This can be complemented by other features - such as control of the indoor temperature or your monitoring system - to be chosen and activated according to your needs, from more than sixty leading providers of services and solutions.
To provide a special feel and boost your comfort, there is nothing like a terrace, a veritable extra room to enjoy the much appreciated climate of the Riviera. Some exceptional apartments have been designed to provide a living experience like that of a house: duplexes and rooftops with 360° views. A guaranteed sensation of freedom!

Privilege!
AN OPEN-AIR SOLARIUM
Quietly set back from the Cap Martin promenade and a stone’s throw from the beach, New Majestic preserves its elegant sobriety from outside view by surrounding itself with Mediterranean species such as cypresses, palms or olive trees... On each floor, generous balconies decorated with flower boxes cultivate this natural atmosphere for a sublime living environment.

FOR AN IDEAL LIVING ENVIRONMENT
It is difficult not to feel the charm of Roquebrune-Cap-Martin, bordered by both the waters of the Mediterranean and its wooded landscapes. This evocatively-named jewel will immediately captivate you due to its privileged location between the Riviera and nearby Italy, and the diversity of its landscapes as well as its atmospheres. Whether you prefer the Dolce Vita spirit of the seaside or the stern character of its steep hinterland, you will quickly become enchanted by this attractive town, which has managed to preserve its discretion.

- Ideal location between Menton and Monaco and close to Italy
- Dream landscape of the Riviera: beaches, lemon trees, olive trees of Cap Martin, hillsides and perched villages
- Easily accessible: direct access from the A8 motorway, 35 km* from Nice Côte d’Azur international airport, numerous train stations nearby: Roquebrune-Cap-Martin, Menton and Monaco
- Ideal resort for lovers of the region’s heritage, and for water sports and golf enthusiasts
